

METCALF MUSIC ACADEMY
REGISTRATION – FALL 2022

Registration for the Fall 2022 session of the Music Academy at Metcalf Lab School is now open. Private lessons will be offered to pupils in grades K-8. The instructors are ISU students who are recommended by the ISU Music Department faculty. Lessons are available on the following: piano, woodwind/brass/string instruments, guitar/ukulele, voice, and percussion. Please no guitar or percussion lessons under 2nd grade unless you are already involved. Wind instruments can be problematic before 4th grade. Talk to me about any of these special situations.

Tuition for 10 half-hour private lessons is $140 payable to Metcalf Music Academy. Lessons will begin approximately the week of September 19th. To ensure I can hire the correct number of teachers by then, registrations and tuition must be received no later than Friday, August 19th. Late registrations will be accepted and handled on an individual basis depending on the availability of teachers. Bring them at Metcalf Move In!

GOALS AND PURPOSES

The Music Academy serves the Metcalf community by offering inexpensive, non-credit music lessons. The Music Academy serves the University by providing opportunities for ISU students to gain experience as music teachers.

POLICIES

Pupils who miss a lesson are required to notify the instructor at least 24 hours before the lesson except in the case of sudden illness. Otherwise the instructor is not obligated to make up that lesson. Likewise, instructors must give 24 hours notice if they will miss a lesson and must make arrangements to make up the lesson, either that week or at another agreeable time. It will not be the responsibility of the teacher to supervise students arriving early for a lesson. Please be sure your child arrives just in time for a lesson and that you've made arrangements for pick-up promptly after the lesson.

Please fill out the registration form and return it to David Sulzberger with a check or pay online. To pay online, go to the Metcalf website parents page => Online Payments (on the left) => look for Music Academy. If you have questions, please contact the Director, David Sulzberger at 309-262-8472 or by e-mail at dsulzbe@ilstu.edu.
